

MONDAY

WHITEPAPER

INTRODUCTION

MONDAY dares and strives to be different, challenging, and exciting. MONDAY is thinking out of the box. We must look at the possibilities that exist and expand them to something that provides what already exists, new uses, and additional services. At the same time, take this and further develop and create new and user friendly services. The growing team behind this token sees the crypto world from above and outside and in. It's a fresh team that asks "silly" questions, throws out the wildest ideas, and breaks the barriers with new and creative thinking. So, at MONDAY, there is never a day without creativity, hard work, and high commitment.

Monday started as a flirt, and it got seriously really fast, and now it's a marriage. A passion and something we as creators love. We have to focus on telling our story straightforward and understandable for everyone. We want to talk about crypto in a way that will engage people inside as well as the ones outside the crypto «hobby» it's still a fresh and new economic even if it has been around for some time, But the crypto market is much bigger than as we know it today.

MONDAY wants to create something new, and we have done that, and we will do it over and over again. We wanted to make tokenomics better, giving you who holds tokens, more benefits and more sources of income based on a single investment. There's no endgame for MONDAY, the sky is not the limit, it's an infinite project and we hope the best community “the Monday People” will keep MONDAY alive forever.

WHAT WE WANT TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT

MONDAY wanted to do something extraordinary for the HOLDERS. Not only the BURN and not only a good community. We have created Monday Land for fun and engagement. As the crypto market is still in the early stages, there are a lot of new members to the market. We want them to succeed and we want them to have fun doing it. So, one of the most frustrating things for new crypto investors when they first get in, is the whales. It's good, but it will also make a great impact later in Mondays life and therefore confusion and frustration for the new holders. That's why we have set a limit to 1 890,000,000,000 tokens per wallet. We also wanted to give you some predictions and availability to save up tokens and BNB as a lifesaving solution by letting some of the fees from all investors going to a trading bot that speculates on a low to medium risk and bringing that profit right back to MONDAY WALLET to the holders. The amount will be divided and calculated by the number of tokens each of the wallets hold and it will be done automatically each Monday.

We want to have great fun while we make history together. MONDAY`s drive is to invent and be creative. To shape and form the future of crypto. When you see us live, it will be spectacular, it will be handed out precise information and it will be fun.

MONDAY WALLET

A third generation wallet, meant for you to use in your daily life in time. We want to make our wallet usable for more than just watching you Mondays grow.

As of now we have a list of headlines, as we are in the early stage of developing/sketching the Wallet and making it ready for wiring and setting up the project to start developing.

We can mention features like:

(Continuous work with concept and content)

Your personal space:

Choose design minimum light and dark mode.

Red, blue, pink, yellow graded design colors.

We want the user to be able to choose the design/color as it fits them. This will engage and make the wallet more personalized and interesting to use.

calculator for easy access and calculation.

The calculator located in the app will let the user do the calculation inside the application instead of going back and forward to the calculator that's installed on the phone as predefined from the start.

Save contacts - Add contacts, messages, groups, chat.

You should be able to use the application for more than just an overview of your tokens, value, and so on. We want to make it a bit more social, share your thoughts, and share information directly inside the application. In this way, you can also keep a better track of who and what you are communicating rather than having multiple chats going on different social media platforms that we know of today. Save your contacts, get involved, stay updated.

Savings. Save BNB to something special you want. Set your goals. Easy with Weekley bnb coming in from the Monday Invest each Monday.

Peer-to-peer lending and splitting the bill between friends.

Hey mate, I need some bucks, can you hook me up? Let's split the bill, I will transfer half to your wallet. Let's pay together. the opportunity to share and care and lend money to your contacts and have an overview of who owes you money. The detailed information of this will have its own home in the application

Gifting/Donation

Want to give a gift or donate money? No problem, we got your back. We also want to create a way for you to donate anonymously as well as gifts if needed.

Total earnings/profit week by week day by day, month by month, and so on (money in and money out)

A great overview of your total investment and profits. It will appear in the front window of your personal space and will make your week good or bad. It depends :) Also, get to see the value in Fiat. Amount of coins, their value per coin, and total Fiat value of your Stock

Collected BNB from investment.

From the Monday investment pool, the owner of the wallet will receive his share of the profit earned by the trading done by the pool. 100% of the profits will each week (Mondays) go straight to the holder of Monday tokens to their Monday wallet. You will need to have a Monday wallet to collect(automatically receive your earned BNB each Monday.

MONDAY INVEST

More about the MONDAY Invest, a new way to save up for something you want or future pension. We will set aside 100 billion tokens to be transferred to a locked Wallet. It will be sent to the investment wallet in small amounts when the token hits a preset price. This will make it an amount of ex. BNB at this moment. This amount together with 5% of the fee from each buy and sales done in the exchange will end up in the investment Wallet. From here it will be swapped to BNB and a trading bot will trade crypto in various markets with low to medium risk. 100% of the profit from this trading will be automatically transferred as BNB back to the holders who have the MONDAY Wallet. Based on the number of tokens you have, you will get the divided part of the profit each Monday as long as you hold as long as you have your tokens in a MONDAY Wallet. Nice huh? Imagine how big this pool will be after some time. It will grow and the profits will hopefully grow as well as the bot will learn and learn and do better and better. It's working for you, for free.

These dips are made for buying, have you ever heard that song? It's a good one and it's good for you to buy the dip. Though we want to prevent it from happening slightly, it suddenly will and We need to have the dips. But it's good for the holders and it's good for the progress of the MONDAY Token.

AR GAME

Wallet application AR game. Yes, it's right. We have some great ideas about this. We cannot let the cat out of the backpack just yet. But it will be fun, creative, and engaging. It will mean you have to move around, But it will be worth it. We have set aside 75 trillion tokens for this game. Based on a well known concept, PokemonGo where you can go Monday hunting for gems, that later on can be exchanged to Monday tokens in the wallet. It would also be a game for in store purchases that will make it suitable for others than people just involved in crypto.

So let's talk about tokenomics.
